

Chelmsford Friends of Music (CFoM) Camp Scholarship Application & Information

 Application Deadline: Monday, May 4, 2020**

General Information

Camp scholarships are awarded to middle and high school students attending Music Summer Camp. These awards are meant to assist, not totally cover, the cost of tuition for a summer music camp. Programs from past years include University of Massachusetts Lowell Mary Jo Leahey Symphonic Band camp and University of New Hampshire Summer Youth Music School.

1. Scholarships are presented each year at the CHS Spring Pops Concert or the student's Middle School Spring Concert. Those not in attendance will be notified individually.
2. The number and value of the awards will be based upon the availability of funds and number of applicants.
3. All decisions of the CFoM Scholarship Committee will be final.

Eligibility Requirements

1. The applicant must be currently enrolled in the Chelmsford Public School System and be an active member in one of the graded music programs offered by the Chelmsford School System. Examples include: Band, Chorus or Orchestra.
2. The applicant must have performed a minimum of 4 hours of documented volunteer service to CFoM prior to the date of this application. Inquiries regarding volunteer hours or any other questions can be sent to chelmsfordfriendsofmusic@gmail.com
3. The application and all documents are due by Monday, May 4, 2020 to be eligible for consideration.
